WHAT DOES SCHOOLS FINANCIAL, A DIVISION OF SCHOOLSFIRST FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Payment history and transaction history
- Account balances and credit card or other debt

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Schools Financial, a division of SchoolsFirst FCU, chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| How does Schools Financial, a division of SchoolsFirst FCU, collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- open an account or apply for a loan
- pay your bills or deposit money
- use your credit or debit card
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing?                                       | Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices will apply to everyone on your account. |
